

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is hurting the perception of the media as unbiased.

The decision to air a blatant smear-piece against John Kerry mere weeks before the election--preempting regular prime time programming, no less--without any balancing piece preceeding or following it is a clear example partisan behavior. Sinclair uses our public airwaves free of charge and has a duty to remain unbiased for the greater public good.

I urge you to reprimand Sinclair Broadcasting so that this dangerous precedent isn't set.

Thank you,
